September 29th - "Orange Shirt Day"

Orange Shirt Day represents an important day of remembrance. When Phyllis (Jack) Webstad's was six years old, her grandmother gifted her an orange shirt for her first day of school. When Phyllis got to school, they stripped her and took away her clothes including the orange shirt. She was never able to wear the orange shirt again. The colour orange always reminded Phyllis of her experiences at residential school. "The colour orange has always reminded me of that and how my feelings didn't matter, how no one cared and how I was worth nothing." Orange shirt day was inspired by Phyllis' story and launched in 2013. Its goal is to educate people about residential schools in Canada and to honour and remember the experiences and loss of the First Nation, Inuit and Metis children who were stolen from their families and placed in these schools.

Students in Grades Pre-K -12 will be taking part in a buddy activity at 9:15. We will be reading "What Holds You Up?" together by Monique Gray Smith and working on a collaborative mural. The SRC will be making and serving free Bannock to the whole school (served late P3). Yummy!
