

Suspension Guidelines

SUSPENSIONS

The principal or his/her designate has the authority to take such disciplinary action as is necessary to correct a situation whereby a student's behavior is of such nature that it is not conducive to a good teaching-learning situation where the well-being of the school and its student body is being jeopardized.

A student may be suspended from school for not more than three school days at a time as outlined in the Education act for the following:

- a) Persistently displayed overt opposition to authority
- b) Refusal to conform to the rules of the school
- c) Habitually neglected his/her duties
- d) Irregular attendance
- e) Willfully destroying school property
- f) Using profane or improper language
- g) Engaging in any other type of gross misconduct
