4.	SRC Activities April 11 - Spring Colours / Pastel Day - This has been a long and miserable winter. Bring out your spring wardrobe and show off those pastel colours. April 12 - Floral Day - Wear your floral leggings or Hawaiian shirts. Put flowers in your hair. We are exciting to see things blooming again. April 12/13 - "Strutting into Spring" contest. The SRC would like to support CFMQ Radio with a spring fundraiser. Students from K-12 will have a chance to win a Spring treat basket in competitive rounds of Musical Chairs. Students will compete in groups of 20. If you are the last person sitting on the last available chair, you will win a basket of treats. Elementary students will have until April 11th to register with their homeroom teacher as to how many rounds they may want to enter. They can enter a

	maximum of 3 rounds. Each round will cost $1 to enter. High School students can enter the day of the competition in the large gym. All proceeds will go to CFMQ Radio. April 13 - Neon Day - We are taking you back to the 1980s today. Stand out today in lime green, neon orange, hot pink, and fluorescent blue. April 25-29th. - CFMQ Foul Shot Competition. Some of our high school basketball players and their coaches will be participating in a foul shot competition at noon on Friday, April 29th. Elementary Students - Beginning on April 25th, elementary students can buy a ticket on their favourite competitor for $1.00. There will be jars lined up at the front office with pictures of their faces. Place your ticket in the jar of the person you think will win the foul shot competition. If you guess the winner correctly, you can win fantastic prizes! Come to the gym at noon this day to cheer for your favourite player. High School Students - Each competitor will be placed on a Silent Auction Bid Sheet. You can place your bets on each competitor from April 25-28th. If you placed the highest bid on the foul shot champion, you will win half of the proceeds from all of the bid sheets. All proceeds from the two competitions will be donated to CFMQ Radio.
5.	The following are student reflections from Tony Stevenson presentation on residential schools. "I agree that there is no amount of money can that repair the harm that was done to people in residential schools." (Grade 9) "Very touching. There was a strong message that we are not to disrespect other people or their cultures. Hearing other stories helps us all to learn." (Grade 12) "The video was so powerful. It exposed stereotypes. The honesty was pure." (grade 11) "I was blown away that the last Residential School only closed in Saskatchewan in 1998. That is very sad." (grade 10) "Tony Stevenson is a very real speaker of the truth of his people and how he feels. There is nothing sugar-coated about his message. It sticks with you. It hits you deeply because he speaks of real people who have experienced trauma and a loss of their culture." (Grade 11)

"This presentation will give all of us the confidence to stand up when we hear someone saying something wrong." (Grade 12)

"The presentation was incredibly solemn. I could feel the discrimination. There is so much pain behind the entire culture. It was very eye-opening." (Grade 11)

"It is hurtful to know that this was the reality for my relatives." (Grade 11)

"Hearing a survivor vs hearing a history teacher talk about this topic was powerful. He talked about real truths about the people he knew." (grade 12)

"The strongest message I took away is that we are learning for the future. We must never make these mistakes again." (grade 12)
